TEVA ANNOUNCES THE GRANT OF SUMMARY JUDGEMENT FOR MIRTAZAPINE TABLETS, GENERIC VERSION OF REMERON

Jerusalem, Israel, December 18, 2002 – Teva Pharmaceutical Industries Ltd. (Nasdaq: TEVA) announced today that the U.S. District Court for the District of New Jersey has granted summary judgment in Teva's favor on the issue of non-infringement with regard to Organon's Remeron[®] Patent No. 5,977,099.

Mirtazapine is the generic version of Remeron[®], a monotherapy treatment for depression produced by Organon, a unit of Akzo Nobel.

Israel Makov, President and CEO of Teva Pharmaceutical, said: "We are very pleased with the court's decision, which validates our Company's strategy of challenging inappropriate patents which deny consumers access to cost-effective medication at a time when concerns over the cost of healthcare are at an all-time high. In January 2002, Teva received tentative approval of its ANDA for mirtazapine. This court decision should now allow the FDA to proceed to grant us final approval of our ANDA in the near future. We believe that we will be entitled to 180 days of exclusivity for this product."

Teva Pharmaceutical Industries Ltd., headquartered in Israel, is among the top 35 pharmaceutical companies and among the largest generic pharmaceutical companies in the world. Over 80% of Teva's sales are in North America and Europe. The company develops, manufactures and markets generic and innovative human pharmaceuticals and active pharmaceutical ingredients.

Safe Harbor Statement under the U. S. Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995: This release contains forward-looking statements, which express the current beliefs and expectations of management. Such statements are based on current expectations and involve a number of known and unknown risks and uncertainties that could cause Teva's future results, performance or achievements to differ significantly from the results, performance or achievements expressed or implied by such forward-looking statements. Important factors that could cause or contribute to such differences include Teva's ability to successfully develop and commercialize additional pharmaceutical products, the introduction of competitive generic products, the impact of competition from brand-name companies that sell their own generic products or successfully extend the exclusivity period of their branded products, Teva's ability to rapidly integrate the operations of acquired businesses, the availability of product liability coverage in the current insurance market, the impact of pharmaceutical industry regulation and pending legislation that could affect the pharmaceutical industry, the difficulty of predicting U.S. Food and Drug Administration ("FDA") and other regulatory authority approvals, the regulatory environment and changes in the health policies and structure of various countries, acceptance and demand for new pharmaceutical products and new therapies, uncertainties regarding market acceptance of innovative products newly launched, currently being sold or in development, the impact of restructuring of clients, reliance on strategic alliances, exposure to product liability claims, dependence on patent and other protections for innovative products, fluctuations in currency, exchange and interest rates, operating results and other factors that are discussed in Teva's Annual Report on Form 20-F and its other filings with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC"). Forward-looking statements speak only as of the date on which they are made, and the Company undertakes no obligation to update publicly or revise any forward-looking statement, whether as a result of new information, future developments or otherwise
